

April MG: Lost? No! We found it!

The Lost Colony Wine & Culinary Festival

The Lost Colony Wine & Culinary Festival is on April 13th in Manteo, NC. Start time is 2:00 p.m. We will gather for a brief meet & greet at the picnic area directly to the right of the ticket window at 2:15 p.m. Then it's off to the festivities for an afternoon of culinary and libation delights—unbelievable quality and selections for the most discriminating tastes, well worth the admission price. Just make sure to check on ticket availability before heading out.

Can't make it to this, you say? Well, afterwards at 6:30 p.m. at The Dare Haven Motel in Manteo, we are having an after-party featuring grilled brats, hot dogs and other goodies—even a birthday cake! It's free to all members! Just bring a treat for all to share. There will be ample adult beverages, sodas and other stuff served. There is plenty of parking. This is where many Mensa members will be staying the night. Rooms may still be available and are reasonably priced.
